From

Miss Ward
1018 Madison Ave
New York
U. S. A.

Bien reçu votre lettre et son contenu dont je vous remercie vous et votre famille, et à titre de reconnaissance je vous envoie douze photo de la tombe de votre regretté Sergent Galtbraith Ward, six entretiens d'été avec fleurs et six vire d'hiver, et dans celle d'été vous y voyez votre serviteur.

Il est question de continuer les exhumations et d'enterrer le reste des corps restant au cimetière de Châteauvillain pour les remettre tous ensemble dans un grand Cimetière si toutefois cela arrive ayant votre adresse, je vous en avertirait aussitôt.

Je ne suis plus Gardien du Cimetière, j'ai eue une histoire au sujet des photographies que j'ai l'air de prendre au cimetière, ce qui est contraire au règlement qui le défend non seulement j'en ai ~~laissé~~ prendre par les personnes de la famille des soldats morts, mais moi même j'ai fait tirer à deux fois celle que je vous envoie. Je fait le Capitaine Inspecteur ~~et~~ voulu me réduire ma paye de vingt-cinq francs par mois, ce qui réduisait mon mois à ~~soixante~~ ~~quingze~~ ~~francs~~ francs. pour être tenu tout les jours je n'ai pas voulu accepter et j'ai donné ma démission.

mais si les exhumations ne se font pas comme on le dit j'aurai à cœur d'entretenir la tombe du Sergent Ward

Comme par le passé je l'ai adopté et en conserverai l'entretien tant qu'il sera là, en tant volontaire de 1870 j'entretiendrai de mon mieux la sépulture d'un frère d'armes de l'armée américaine encore une fois merci, remerciements à toute la famille.

Recevez Miss Ward mes civilités empressées.

THE ARTEMAS WARD HOMESTEAD

SHREWSBURY, MASS.

THE home of Gen. Artemas Ward, the first commander-in-chief of the American Revolutionary Armies. From it, on the news of Lexington and Concord, he rode to Cambridge to take command of the Siege of Boston.

The "old part," or East Section, was built between 1730 and 1745, probably by Col. Nahum Ward, father of Gen. Ward. The "new part," or West Section, was added by Gen. Ward in 1785.

The Homestead is open from May 15 to October 30 (except Sundays). Visitors are always welcome. Its historical collections well repay a visit.
